THE GREENWICH ARTS COUNCIL PRESENTS

KAREN MONTANARO: IMAGINATION IN ACTION

On Tuesday, January 27, the Greenwich Arts Council will present three performances by world renowned dancer and performance-mime artist Karen Montanaro. An award winning choreographer, Montanaro has been the innovator of “mime-dance”, which represents a fusion of two classical art forms to create a new language of movement. Through this new language the artist brings audiences to develop an understanding of the personal and cultural forces which shape artistic communication, and how the arts in turn shape the diverse cultures of past and present society.

Montanaro has danced professionally with the Joffrey Ballet School, the Ohio Ballet, the Darmstadt Opera Ballet, and the Portland Ballet Company. She has taught and toured internationally with mime master Tony Montanaro.

The January 27 performances are scheduled at the Greenwich Western Middle School at 9:30am; the Greenwich Senior Center, 299 Greenwich Avenue, at 1pm; and the Nathaniel Witherell Home, 70 Parsonage Road, at 2pm. The afternoon performances are free and open to the public.
