The Greenwich Arts Council
presents

JAZZ at NOON - a series of jazz dialogues
Premiere event, Wednesday, April 11, 12 noon
Featuring DARYL SHERMAN

Greenwich Arts Council, 2nd floor Meeting Room
299 Greenwich Avenue

If you enjoyed the Greenwich Arts Council's sellout program of lunchtime plays then you will love the exciting new afternoon three-concert series called JAZZ at NOON, illuminating aspects of American jazz, scheduled for this spring in the Arts Council's meeting room.

The first in this series, Wednesday, April 11, at 12 noon, features singer and pianist Daryl Sherman. According to The New Yorker, Daryl Sherman "has yet to meet a standard whose charms she couldn't extract...and manages to find contemporary resonance in everything." A sparkling mainstay of Manhattan nightlife, she regularly performs on Cole Porter's Steinway at the Waldorf Astoria and has been lauded for appearances at the Algonquin's famous Oak Room, Iridium Jazz Club and, most recently, Jazz at Lincoln Center with Wynton Marsalis. Daryl Sherman has also recorded extensively.

Tickets for JAZZ at NOON - a series of jazz dialogues are $25 ($20 for GAC members), and because seating is limited, paid reservations are required. Please call the Greenwich Arts Council office to make your reservation.

For more information and a performance schedule for the remaining concerts, please call the Greenwich Arts Council office at 203-622-3998 or check the GAC website at www.greenwicharts.org. JAZZ at NOON is made possible in part by a grant from the CT Commission on Culture & Tourism.

The Greenwich Arts Council promotes the arts by nurturing artists and building audiences, bringing the arts to the community and the community to the arts.
