The Greenwich Arts Council
presents

IONA
In Concert
Sunday, April 22, 7 pm
Greenwich Arts Council,
2nd floor Meeting Room
299 Greenwich Avenue

If you like Celtic folk music, then run, don't walk to 299 Greenwich Avenue on Sunday evening, April 22, at 7 pm, when the Greenwich Arts Council presents the internationally renowned pan-Celtic group, IONA in Concert, part of their 20th anniversary tour.

IONA treats its audience to high energy entertainment featuring Scottish fiddling, driving percussion, and strong vocals from all the Celtic nations, including America. Presenting the music and dance of Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Cornwall, the Isle of Man, Brittany, Asturias and Galicia, IONA emphasizes that America is not only the repository of all these cultural influences, but also the progenitor of many of its own.

Celebrating its 20th anniversary, IONA has evolved into one of the top rated pan-Celtic groups in the world. Co-founded by Barbara Tresidder Ryan (lead vocals, Celtic bouzouki, guitars and bodhran) and Bernard Argent (wooden flute, whistles, doumbek, back-up vocals), IONA now claims one of the most exciting young American fiddlers, Andrew Dodds. Rounding out the line up is Chuck Lawhorn (6-string bass guitar, whistles, and vocals).

IONA will perform in concert on Sunday, April 22 at 7 pm in the 2nd floor Meeting Room of the Greenwich Arts Council, 299 Greenwich Avenue. Tickets are $15.00, general admission ($10.00 for Greenwich Arts Council members). Seating is limited, so please call the Greenwich Arts Council office in advance, at 203-622-3998, to purchase your tickets.

The Greenwich Arts Council promotes the arts by nurturing artists and building audiences, bringing the arts to the community and the community to the arts. Visit our website www.greenwicharts.org.
