Greenwich Arts Council Announces Annual Meeting
And Creative Achievement Awards
Thursday, June 5, 2008, 4:30 pm

The Greenwich Arts Council will hold its Annual Meeting, immediately following a board meeting, on Thursday, June 5. The board meeting will start at 4 pm with the Annual Meeting following promptly at 4:30 pm, at 299 Greenwich Avenue, 2nd floor meeting room. At this time the membership is expected to vote on new board members and the slate for Executive Committee officers. Proposed new members to the Greenwich Arts Council board of directors include Barbara Collier, Connie Cowen, Victoria Hackman, and Martha Spector. GAC advisor Janet Clausi will also be welcomed back as a full time board member.

The presentation of the Arts Council's Creative Achievement Awards will immediately follow the Annual Meeting at 5 pm. The Creative Achievement Awards are given annually to exceptional local high school seniors who excel in the visual, dramatic, musical, and literary arts, and who are creative, find new paths, and dare to follow them. These students, chosen by their teachers, are submitted to the Arts Council for recognition.

The Greenwich Arts Council's high expectation on the arts comes with a true sense of responsibility for providing nurturing opportunities to artists, members, and volunteers, where they can experiment, grow, and be acknowledged for their creativity and efforts. Traditionally, the Annual Meeting provides all of us a wonderful glimpse of the future of the arts for our community. All are invited to attend.

For information about the Greenwich Arts Council and for volunteer opportunities, please call 203-862-6750 or log on to www.greenwicharts.org.

The Greenwich arts Council promotes the arts by nurturing artists and building audiences, bringing the arts to the community and the community to the arts.
